Planners Decide City Should Buy Greenbelt

During a study session yesterday afternoon, Carmel planning commissioners re-emphasized dune property at the north end of the beach and a wooded canyon running along the eastern city boundary as prime objectives in any greenbelt acquisition program for the city.

Last Thursday in the first study session on the greenbelt acquisition program, undertaken at the request of the city council, commissioners first selected these two areas as most important in carrying out greenbelt provisions of the general plan for Carmel.

Yesterday, following a visit to the 3.4-acre dune property belonging to William Crawford by several commissioners, and a similar survey of the 30-40 acre canyon by Chairman Fred Keeble, they decided to prepare a report recommending to the city council that these properties be acquired and retained in their natural states as public lands.

The report, prepared by Commissioner Dorothy von Meier, will be presented to other commissioners, sitting as a committee of the whole on this matter, when they meet in regular session next week.

Commissioner William H. Godwin Jr. urged the commission yesterday to recommend that the city council approach Mr. Crawford and ask him if he will sell his dune land to the city. If the council receives a negative answer, Mr. God-

78 West Alisal Street
Salinas, California
May 14, 1962

Editor,
Carmel Pine Cone

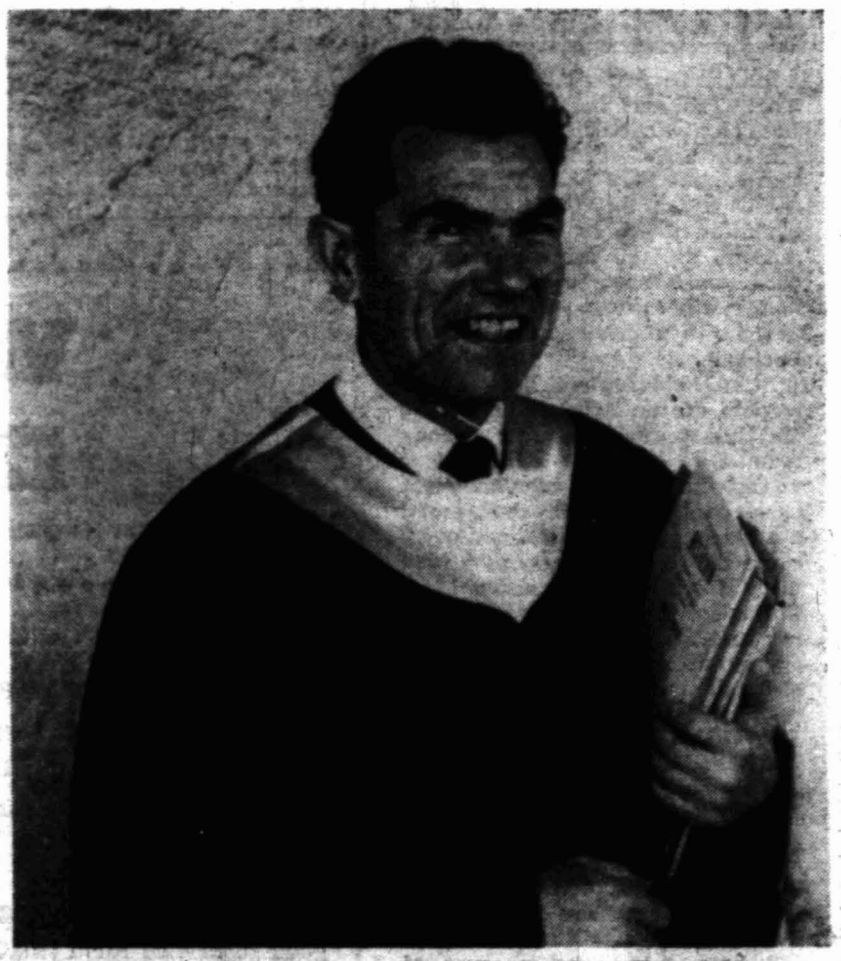
I personally thank and commend you for the editor's column of your May 10, 1962, edition concerning the American Field Service international scholarship program. You seem to have a sincere concern for local participation in international affairs and for promoting world understanding and peace.

In my opinion, the American Field Service program is the most effective program yet devised for developing world understanding. I have heard people say, "but what can we possibly do here, in remote places like Salinas and Carmel, in international or world affairs?" It seems to me that this attitude simply abdicates our opportunity and responsibility to participate in international and world affairs. We, as individuals, are just as important and can do just as much as any other single person in the Congo, or in Russia, or in Philadelphia. Our participation is limited only by the scope of our thinking, our concern and our willingness to participate.

One of the most exciting, interesting and effective ways to participate in world affairs, from a local position, is through the American Field Service. There is a place for every member of the community to participate.

The 20-30 Club, the Carmel High School administration, Mrs. Sippel, and the local AFS committee should be congratulated for renewing AFS in Carmel.

Yours very truly,
Burt L. Talcott



John Farr's Encouraging Smile Has Led Carmel's Young And Old To Joy In The Uplifting Power Of Music

By Mary Lindsay-Oliver

Musical events in Carmel are more numerous than in many American cities of much greater size, and to participate fully in this phase of life here taxes time, temper and talent. But one man, John W. Farr, is able to be an important part of all this activity, in addition to his duties as instructor of music at Carmel High School and instructor of instrumental music at Sunset School, and remain unhurried, genial and ready to share his gifts.

In fact his quick smile, quiet enthusiasm and unselfish participation contribute to the success of almost all musical events in the community.

He shuns publicity for himself but persons with whom he has worked over the years decided this popular and versatile musician should be given a testimony of record and regard. He is unaware of this intent and this article will be a surprise when he sees it.

A native Californian, John Farr was born in Needles, attended schools in San Mateo and Salinas, then entered the University of the Pacific in Stockton. He graduated as a voice and public school music major, later did postgraduate work at the University of California.

Immediately following college, he began his chosen career and taught music first for four years at Washington Junior High School in Salinas. Following this he was instructor of music at Liberty Union High School in Brentwood for six years. He came to Carmel to teach music at Carmel High School in 1946.

Since then, hundreds of boys and girls in this community have learned from him the joy of group singing, a few less the pleasure and sense of accomplishment derived from playing in an orchestra or band.

When Mr. Farr came to Carmel High School, the band consisted of a bass drum and two smaller drums which were beaten when the football team made a touchdown. Now at football games and other events, a red and gray uniformed band marches behind the man who

The flight of the arts commission into the yonder of a Shakespearean drama by the Old Vic Company at the Forest Theater this year ended when Chairman Marjorie Wurzmann read a letter Tuesday from Sol Hurok Attractions stating that the English company's tour "was completely filled."

But commissioners' wings still fluttered. They decided the next time Old Vic players come to this country they'll write to Hurok's west coast manager, George Fowler, six months in advance.

Monday night, the Monterey County Committee on School District Organization recommended that Palo Colorado School, also Captain Cooper School at Big Sur, should be annexed to Carmel Unified School District.

The annexation proposals must be approved by the State Board of Education before citizens of the two districts can decide on annexation in an election in each of the districts. Carmel district citizens are not required to vote on the matter.

In preliminary discussions, however, members of the Carmel District board of education indicated they would not oppose annexing the downcoast districts.

Class Of 1937 To Honor End Of Era At Sunset School

In all probability, the present eighth grade at Sunset School will end an era when they march from the auditorium following graduation exercises on June 14, as present Carmel Unified School District board of education plans are to use Sunset as a kindergarten through sixth grade facility in years to come. In view of this, Sunset's principal, Orville Rogers, wants to invite all members of Sunset's 1937 graduating class to be special guests at this year's graduation. It will be 25 years since the Class of 1937 left Sunset auditorium headed for vacation and Monterey High School. (There was no Carmel High School then.)

Mr. Rogers has picked the graduates of 25 years ago to represent the hundreds of other boys and girls who have finished their elementary education when they received certificates on the stage of Sunset School because a quarter of a century since graduation seemed an appropriate period of time. Sunset could, however, muster graduates of half a century ago, but not very many. Classes were small then and graduates could be counted on the fingers of one hand.

The Class of 1937 at Sunset School numbered 47. The account of that year's graduation in the Pine Cone states that the auditorium was filled to see the white-clad boys and girls receive certificates.

The class marched down the two aisles and crossed at the front of the auditorium before taking its place on the stage.

A spotlight centered attention on the facsimile of a huge volume entitled The Book of the Class of 1937, lettered in gold.

The book opened to disclose Jacqueline Klein, the first of a series of speakers who summarized character qualities and studies the 1937 eighth graders had absorbed during the year. Those who followed Jacqueline were Irving Parker, Charlotte May, Arthur Strasburger, Joan Warren, Dorothy Nash, Donald Berry, Harriet Hatton, George Gossler, Lillian Ohm, Monty Stearns, William Coffin, Madelaine McDonogh and Dick Williams.

A verse choir, consisting of all the other members of the class, gave introductory and closing remarks. They were Katherine Baggett, Lucile Finn, Charles Gansel, Alfred Black, John Castro, Marjorie Hoyt, Yvonne Mercurio, Carol Larson, Clara Walls, Eleanor Hart, Donna Hodges, Martin Artellan, Evan Cowley, George DeAmaral, Elaine McEntire, Ann Millis, Hugh Dormody, Robert Frolli, Peter Elliott, Robert Gargiulo, Gerry Shepherd, Mary Jane Uzzell, Alice Vidoroni, Harold Johnson, Orville Jones, Ann Whitman, Emma Ann Wishart, Betsy Hunter, Edward Ricketts, Danny Villapando, Bobby Mayes, Gerald Ray and Colden Whitman.

Principal Otto Bardarson bid the Class of 1937 farewell with the statement that he had known most of the graduates since they had entered kindergarten at Sunset School. Adolph G. Hanke, chairman of the board of trustees, presented the diplomas.

Members of the Class of 1937 will be seated in a special section in the auditorium at this June's graduation, Mr. Rogers promises.

Everyone's Invited To Free Concert At High School Tonight

The Carmel High School music department will offer a spring concert tonight at 8:00 o'clock in the high school cafeteria.

The special high school choir, the general chorus and the band will participate, and by special invitation the Sunset School band. Carleton Macy will play a trumpet solo and Mike Taafe a tuba solo.

The public is invited to attend without charge.

The Sunset School band will perform Fort Bragg, a march; Friar-Tuck, Allegheny Moon and Goofus.

The choir will sing O Bone Jesu, by Ingegneri; Rainsong, by Bright; The Luckless Fisherman, by Edelman; Frog in the Spring, by Niles.

The chorus will sing Heavenly Light, by Kolylow; Elijah, by Hairston; Sound of Music, by Rogers; Sourwood Mountain, by Wilson.

To conclude the concert, the high school band will perform Colonel Bogey, by Alford; Birth of Dawn, by Clarke (trumpet solo by Carleton Macy); Cornet Carillon, by Binge; Asleep in the Deep, by Petrie (tuba solo by Mike Taafe); Matador, by Cacavas.

College Plans Event In Memory Of Late Carmel Artist

The late Xavier Martinez, who lived and worked in Carmel during part of his long career as a distinguished California artist, will be among those honored on the Emerald Anniversary Art Tour at the California College of Arts and Crafts in Oakland on May 26.

Mr. Martinez, whose widow still maintains a home on Carmel Point, was one of the founders of the Oakland school and one of the members of the first art faculty there.

The tour, an annual spring event at the college, which is located at 5212 Broadway, will begin at 11:00 o'clock and will include the studio-home of Mr. Martinez along with a number of special exhibits and art shows on the campus.

Receiving visitors at her father's former studio during the tour, which marks the 55th anniversary of the school, will be Mrs. Micaela Martinez Ducasse. Paintings by Mr. Martinez, lent by their owners, and artifacts which he collected on his many travels will be exhibited at the studio that day.

Sponsoring the tour, which closes at 5:00 o'clock, are members of the CCAC Guild. Tickets, in exchange for a $2.00 donation to the college, are available from the guild by writing to the college.

Wilder & Jones	1	2
P.A. Macs	1	3
Boys' Town	0	3

Just about as expected, the veteran Pilot Market name has taken over the top spot in the Carmel Little League standings, but the grocers are being pressed by the spirited Sport Shop club which is undefeated in two games. The Sports and Pilot clash Friday evening in the feature game of the week.

Art Carpenter's Pilot Market nine notched a pair of wins at the expense of Boys' Town and Turner & McEldowney, beating the clothiers, 9 to 2, and topping the bricklayers, 5 to 0. Pitcher Terry Mosolf paced the grocers in the win over Boys' Town, clubbing a perfect three-for-three and driving in four markers. Jackie Campbell pitched a seven-hitter for the clothiers with Jay Argust leading the hitters with 2-for-2. Scott Lemons and Terry Mosolf teamed up to throw a three-hitter at Turner & McEldowney as the grocers were combing pitcher Jim Grey for 8 blows. Besides pitching solid ball, Lemons and Mosolf paced the Pilot hitters with two blows apiece. Rod Martin connected for a pair of safeties to lead the T&M nine at the plate.

Wilder & Jones hit the win column for the first time against the P.A. Macs, clipping the insurance crew, 7 to 2, as Hart Silverie and John Kimbark collaborated to pitch a one-hitter against the league's newest entry. Kimbark and Brad Jones led the winners at the plate, each getting two hits in three chances. Rookie Joe Scolet was the only P.A. Mac batter to hit safely, touching Kimbark for a single in the fourth heat. The Macs also found the Pilot crew tough to handle as the grocers clipped McGuckin's boys, 13 to 1, in Monday night's joust. A pair of round-trippers by Chuck Pearson and the steady pitching of Mike Lemons and Terry Mosolf paced the grocers to the win over the insurance nine. Ronnie Parsons and Jay Jepson also homered for the winners.

Turner & McEldowney evened out its season at the expense of Boys' Town, topping the clothiers, 5 to 2, as Brian McEldowney threw a two-hitter at Newt Goodrich's boys. Rod Martin and Doug Lang were the top batters for the winners, each clouting two safe blows in three trips to the plate. Boys' Town had a 2-1 edge going into the fourth heat when the bricklayers exploded for three runs to ice the contest.

Tonight's Little League slate has Boys' Town tackling P.A. Macs and Friday's tilt matches the two top teams, Sport Shop and Pilot Market.

HEAVY SCORING IN FARM LEAGUE PLAY

With the accent on offense, Carmel's Little League farm teams swung into action last Saturday in a full day of baseball which saw 105 runs cross the plate at the Carmel Little League Park.

Carmel Plaza got off a winning effort, whipping the American Legion 13 to 8; Surf & Sand took Rocky Point Restaurant, 24 to 3; the Rockets bombed the Village Inn, 11 to 3; and Derek Rayne edged the Mission Ranch, 22 to 21.

This Saturday's schedule has Derek Rayne meeting the American Legion at 10:00 o'clock; Carmel Plaza and Rocky Point plays at 12:00; the Village Inn and Mission Ranch cross bats at 2:00; and Surf & Sand tries the Rockets at 4:00 o'clock.

Coach Bud Guiterrez brings his Gonzales Spartans to Carmel High's diamond this Friday afternoon for a league game with Coach Hadley Hicks's cellar-dwelling Padres. The Spartans were early season picks to win the league title this year, but an impotent batting attack betrayed the Black & Orange nine and relegated the favorites to fifth position.

Pacific Grove High took another step closer to defending its CCAL B-Division baseball championship last Friday afternoon by whipping the Carmel Padres, 6 to 2, as sophomore pitcher Bob Roberts threw a four-hitter at the hapless Carmel nine. The loss to the arch-rival Breakers was the fifteenth consecutive setback for the Padres this season and they have only three games left on the 1962 docket. Big blow for the host Pacific Grove nine in Friday's crucial league clash was Roger Busico's three-run homer which proved to be enough margin to assure victory for the Breakers.

Stan Michelson and Bob Holmes worked on the hill for the Padres and deserved a better fate as they teamed up to throw a four-hitter at the winners. However, the alert base-running of the Breakers posed a problem for the Padres and overcame the fine pitching jobs turned in by Holmes and Michelson. Mike Escondon, Lindy Mahrt, Dave Maher and Michelson were the only Padre batters to hit safely off the swift slants of hurler Roberts.

PADRES MAY HAVE BEST PREP GOLF TEAM IN STATE

Coach Fred Rainer's Carmel High golf team is still undefeated after 12 matches this season and looks to be a shoo-in to cop the CCAL links title. The junior-laden Padre swingers have defeated the five A-division schools in the CCAL and have taken the measure of Gilroy and Pacific Grove in the B-division. In addition to the top six players who are capable of shooting in the seventies, Coach Rainer is developing a freshman squad which should be burning up the circuit during the 1964 golf season.

Competition for a spot on the Carmel squad is so tough that the sixth man on the squad may shoot a 75 and still not be good enough to have his score count against the opposition. In most of the matches so far this year, the five-man team has been represented by senior Martin Andrews, a consistent 70 shooter who transferred to Carmel from Santa Barbara High; John Lefler, who usually tackles the Tuesday, June 5th, will be an important day for every citizen interested in good government. I'm sure that means all of us. Because June 5 is the day we select state and congressional office candidates for the general election next fall.

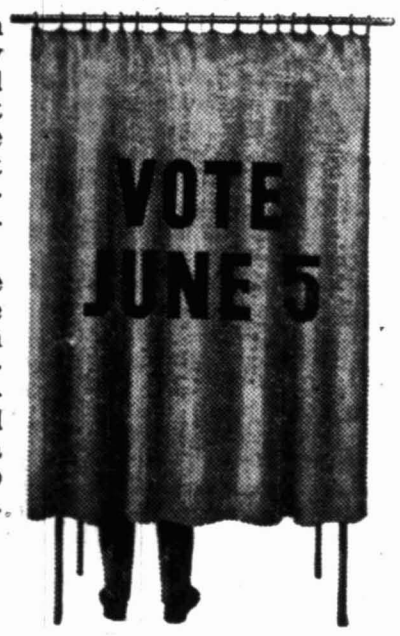
While the primaries are next month, many people are starting to bone up on the candidates now, learning about them, their records, and what they stand for. Seems to me that's a mighty good way to help select those best qualified.



Music On The Peninsula

By Mary Lindsay-Oliver

Symphony Week was inaugurated by the Monterey County Symphony Orchestra's first "Pops" concert Sunday at the Fairgrounds, attended by a crowd that filled all benches and stood around the area listening to the well chosen program and remarks by Conductor John Gosling.

The concert started with a spirited rendering of the Star Spangled Banner. The American Salute by Gould, built on Johnny Comes Marching Home; a suite from Bizet's Opera, Carmen; three amusing pieces by Leroy Anderson, the Syncopated Clock, Plink, Plank, Plunk, and Sleigh Ride, followed. Then came the Fantasia on Greensleeves by Vaughan Williams, Strauss's Emperor Waltz, and a final selection from My Fair Lady, all of which were enthusiastically applauded by the crowd. A large Barbershop Chorus directed by Dr. Walter Williams also pleased. Many wended their way to the auditorium where Herb Miller's orchestra played for dancing after the program.

It was an entirely successful venture that preludes more. Erno Daniels, conductor of the Santa Barbara Symphony was there.

Composer Roy Harris and Alexander Fried came the previous day to judge the local state competition for young composers, with Mr. Daniels.

The Monterey County Symphony Orchestra's final pair of concerts of this season were played Monday in Salinas and Tuesday in Carmel. Never in the past few years has there been more growth in attendance and enthusiasm. This was evidenced on entering the lobby of Sunset auditorium where four persons at a table were busy registering subscribers for next season; nor has the playing of the orchestra ever received such whole-hearted approbation with a standing salute at the end for Conductor Gosling and the players who had just completed a stirring performance of Howard Hanson's Romantic Symphony.

In this, his first year with our orchestra, John Gosling has proven himself not only a most capable conductor, but also a builder of instrumental ensemble that demands and receives loyal rehearsal attendance and thus development of performance.

A warmhearted individual, he is making himself a real Carmelite with the music of the Peninsula at heart. His choice of programs has been enlightening including Tuesday's rare presentation of the 17th century chamber opera by England's Purcell.

This occupied half of Tuesday's program. Its smooth and tuneful continuity in the simpler unencumbered phrases of that age were a revelation in the art of realistic dramatic expression in sound. The audience was entirely intrigued, and though the work had to be given in concert form, the soloists all indicated a bit of acting.

John Farr, in particular, as Aeneas expressed in attitude and vocal nuances the regret of Aeneas at leaving Dido and accomplished with his flexible baritone heartfelt pathos, which few singers can.

Joy Ellen Reese as Dido, Elaine Johnson as Belinda, Sally Welts as second woman, Norma Wiley as the Sorceress, all sang the soprano roles with ease and success, though all need to develop more balanced vocal scales, which sometimes takes years to do. The famous and beautiful Lament was well sung.

The Hartnell Community Chorus of 38 singers, Vahe Aslanian, director, did an excellent and valiant part throughout in the varied choruses of supposed sailors, witches and dancers, having to stand throughout the whole hour; and the orchestral players carried over with sympathy and intention the concerted forms, so vibrant and harmonious with their minimum of means, under Gosling's authoritative guidance. In all a most interesting performance.

Hanson's Symphony is an example of his many works that have been nationally and internationally honored. He is a contemporary composer who does not believe in forsaking the natural roots of music and therefore obtains coherent and interesting harmonic construction instead of dissonant blares. Hanson stands as an important influence to American composers.

Mr. Gosling ended the first two movements with sensitive pianissimo and the third with a brilliant climax. The orchestra never played better and deserved the wholehearted applause they received.

Before the program Judge Eugene Harrah, Monterey County Symphony Association president, told the audience the result of the association's state contest for young composers and later Mr. Gosling announced the winners. There was a tie between Edward Applebaum and Morris Haigh, both of Los Anegles. It was also announced that Ted Huntington, one of the symphony orchestra's cello players, generously provided the money for the prize ($500 plus expenses of the contest). Applebaum's composition was Concert Overture; Haigh's, Music for Orchestra.

The famous Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra under Eugene Ormondy is on an extended tour of principal towns and plays in the San Francisco Opera House on May 28 and 29. I hope to hear the orchestra at this time.

Rich McClean has been the number six player on the squad and shoots a good enough stick to be number one on most of the prep teams in the area. Free Showing Of Japanese Prize Film At MPC Tomorrow

Ugetsu, the Japanese film which has been called artistically superior to Rasho-mon, will be shown in the Monterey Peninsula College Armory tomorrow evening at 8:00 o'clock.

With it will be presented a 10-minute short, Cellures. The public is invited by the evening division to attend without charge.

The story of Ugetsu takes place in 16th century Japan. It concerns two peasant neighbors who see the opportunity to fulfill their own desires in the confusion of fighting and pillaging by feudal armies. Each travels to the city, the potter hoping to become rich, the farmer craving military glory. Each man seemingly finds what he seeks—but both are shocked into reality by a series of weird events.

The film, made in 1954, alternates between the violence of war and a magical, eerie quality.

Ugetsu was winner of the grand prize at the Venice Film Festival. It features Japanese dialogue with English subtitles.

Robert Duncan

Robert F. M. Duncan of Benbow and Pebble Beach died Monday night at his home on the Peninsula. Although he had been under medical care, his death was unexpected.

Born May 14, 1897, Mr. Duncan was a native of Douglas Island, Alaska, and a 1920 graduate of Stanford University. In 1923 he married the former Frances Merrill, who survives him, as do two sons, Robert F. M. Duncan Jr., of Charleston, South Carolina, and John M. Duncan of Benbow; a sister, Mrs. Flora Duncan Clark of Pasadena; and six grandchildren.

Long active in Republican Party affairs, Mr. Duncan was a longtime resident of the Bay area. He was an engineer with the Ward Engineering Company and Calaveras Cement Company in San Francisco until 1934, and was also associated with a San Francisco stock brokerage firm until 1938. He moved to Benbow, Humboldt County, following his retirement, and also maintained a residence on Pebble Beach for a number of years.

A veteran of World War I, he served as an infantry lieutenant in France. Among his organizations was the American Legion post in Garberville.

Private funeral rites were to be held this afternoon at the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea, with the Paul Mortuary in charge of arrangements. Inurnment will take place in the family plot at Mountain View Cemetery, Oakland.

brought it into being.

He has always cultivated individual talent discovered among his students, too, and encouraged these gifted young people to undertake further study in order to develop their musical gifts.

Outside of school hours his activities include being director of the Chapel Singers and a soloist at the Church of the Wayfarer, also helping to organize the Monterey County Symphony. Hé has played the French horn with the symphony since its early years and, at times when no musician was available, filled in as player of other wind instruments. He has served on the board of directors of the Symphony Association and at present is personnel manager of the orchestra. John Farr is also on the board of directors of the Carmel Music Society.

He is beloved for his constant good-natured helpfulness and selfless bearing in serving in the above capacities and his modest, unaffected attitude is a fine example of sincerity and loyalty to other persons associated with these organizations in various ways.

Last year, John Farr assisted Sandor Salgo, conductor of the Bach Festival, by preparing and training the festival chorus.

The Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts know his quality of true helpfulness also. He has aided them with community sings and Christmas carolling. Members of the Carmel Youth Center have experienced this, too. He has trained many a choral group for the Christmas Capers, the teenage recreation center's free program for the community each year. Another choral group he has directed for many years is the Peninsula Male Choir. He has also been the tireless director of a women's singing group. And these are all only a few of his contributions to the musical life of Carmel.

The possessor of a baritone voice of sympathetic and appealing musical quality, John Farr has been in demand as a soloist for local concerts over the years. He has sung in the Bach Festival Chorus; been a soloist with the Monterey County Symphony. On Good Friday, this year, he appeared as soloist in the Faure Requiem presented at All Saints' Episocpal Church.

In the recent premiere of William Purdy's opera, the Marriage Proposal, given at the new Monterey Peninsula College music hall on two successive week ends, John Farr sang one of the three principal roles and surprised with his acting ability those who did not know of his dramatic activities in college. He also sings with the Peninsula Madrigal Singers.

No musical event is too small to gain John Farr's interest and help for he believes in the fact that music is a necessary part of education; that it can inspire people and lift them out of mundane existence; that persons who have never learned to appreciate music have missed an important part of life.

His genial disposition endears him to his Carmel High School students and adults. His encouraging smile is known to all who strive musically in this community, especially those whom he is conducting.

His necessary movements as personnel manager of the county symphony, on quiet tiptoe when the group is rehearsing, are evidence of his keen respect for music and players. Symphony conductors have found they can entrust a choral or instrumental group to his conscientious coaching.

The last high school memory of every local boy and girl is marching from the platform at graduation to the recessional music of the Carmel High School Orchestra conducted by John Farr.

This experience has been realized by one of his children, David, now a junior, majoring in biological sciences, at Humboldt State College. Two others, Diena, a junior, and Kathy, a freshman, at Carmel High School have it to look forward to.

In the audience will be John Farr's wife, Katherine, also a graduate of the University of the Pacific, where she met her husband.

But above all John Farr loves music and taking an active part in helping others enjoy it. A few years ago, parents of Carmel High School students "went back to school" for a night. When they arrived for music class, then conducted on the cafeteria stage as there was at that time no music room, John Farr said, "Let's sing."

In a few minutes the parents were trilling scales, then singing old favorites lustily, led by a smiling, happy teacher.

It was a brief encounter but those parents, for 15 minutes, experienced an unforgettable occasion and left happier people.

They had shared John Farr's unspoken belief in the uplifting power of music for young and old as they joined the hundreds in Carmel who have responded to his encouraging smile.

John Burkel

Private funeral services were held yesterday for John A. Burkel, 81, who died at his Carmel home, Ninth and Camino Real, yesterday. He had spent his winters in Carmel for the past 15 years.

Prior to his retirement in 1945, Mr. Burkel had been a special assistant to the plastics manager of E. I. Dupont of Wilmington, Delaware, spending more than 33 years with the chemical firm.

He was born October 21, 1880, in Atlanta, and moved with Mrs. Burkel, who survives him, to Carmel in 1947. The couple spent their summers in Keene Valley, New York.

In addition to his wife, Mrs. Pauline Burkel, he leaves a daughter, also named Pauline, of Burlington, Vermont. The last rites were conducted at the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea, Pacific Grove, with additional services to follow in Keene Valley. The Paul Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

Mary Ferguson

Mrs. Mary Ferguson, whose home was in Carmel, died in a nursing home in Oakland Friday. She had been ill for a short time.

She had maintained a residence for the past two decades at Eighth and Torres, and was a member of the Carmel Woman's Club. Mrs. Ferguson was also associated with the Friends Society here and in Berkeley, where she spent part of her time.

She was a native of New York City where she was born January 27, 1870. Part of her education was gained at Cornell University. In 1942 she moved to California with her husband.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth V. Steilberg of Berkeley; two granddaughters, Mrs. Edward B. Lawton of Berkeley, and Mrs. Edward Dwyer of Sacramento, and seven great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were planned at Bayview Chapel in Berkeley.

win suggested that the city engineer then be asked to lay out the lines of the four large lots Mr. Crawford proposes as a subdivision of his land.

Following this the commission could establish necessary building setbacks to protect beach frontage and put the area into specific large-lot zoning and thus prevent later subdivision (possible 50-25 lots), Mr. Goodwin indicated.

Chairman Fred Keeble said, in his opinion, the wooded canyon was equally important as a greenbelt acquisition. Commissioner Hugh Smith stated that the part of this canyon owned by Robert Doolittle was in present R-2 county zoning which even permits race tracks. He proposed asking the county to rezone this area, preserved in its natural state by Mr. Doolittle, for R-1 (single-family residential) or greenbelt use. Most of this canyon is outside the city limits.

Commissioner Florence Josselyn declared that the Crawford property was beautiful and should be owned by the city. She also advocated recommending that the city acquire all or any part of the canyon which goes through the Eighty Acres area and ends opposite Carmel Mission Basilica.

She later pointed out that, considering increasing density of population, "We should acquire greenbelt while we can."

Mrs. Heiliger

Mrs. Cassie Bingham Heiliger died yesterday morning in a local rest home at the age of 85. She had been in ill health for the past several months.

A native of Harvard, Illinois, Mrs. Bingham was born Cassie Bingham in 1877 on August 3. For the past dozen years she had made her home with her sister, Miss Amy Bingham, at Tenth and Lincoln streets. Prior to this, she had resided in Robles Del Rio. She was the widow of Carl F. Heiliger, who died in 1941, and a member of the Presbyterian Church in Carmel. Her sister survives her.

Private services will be held tomorrow at 11:00 o'clock in the morning at the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea, with the Reverend Harris Pillsbury of the Carmel Presbyterian Church officiating and the Paul Mortuary in charge. Inurnment is to follow at the Monterey Columbarium.

Mrs. Haight

Mrs. Imogene L. Haight died Tuesday evening in a local hospital, while on the Peninsula visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood H. Smith of Carmel Valley.

She was 88 years old on Tuesday, and though she was in frail health, her death was unexpected.

Born in Connecticut May 15, 1874, Mrs. Haight had lived more than 40 years in California. Her husband, Sherman R. Haight, preceded her in death in 1940.

Another daughter also survives, Mrs. Ruth E. Greene of Altadena; also three sons, L. Spencer Haight of Perkins, Sherman O. Haight of Carmichael and Roy A. Haight of Lafayette; a brother, Oscar Whitehead of Wallingford, Connecticut; 13 grandchildren, and 19 great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements have been made in Sacramento, with services set tomorrow at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon at the Miller and Skelton Mortuary, 1015 Twentieth Street. Interment will follow in the Haight family plot, Odd Fellows Cemetery. The Paul Mortuary has been in charge of local arrangements.

58 years of fine funeral service has built a large circle of sincere friends.

County Candidates Speak Monday Night At Public Meeting

Candidates for Monterey County offices will all be on one platform Monday night at the USO when the League of Women Voters presents its Meet The Candidates For County Offices.

Incumbents who are running for re-election unopposed will be introduced to the audience. These include: Stanley Davis, county auditor; Christopher Hill Jr., coroner and public administrator; Emmet McMenamin, county clerk and recorder; Bertram N. Young, district attorney; and Anthony Brazil, superior court judge.

To provide adequate time for a question-and-answer period, the 19 candidates for opposed offices will be limited to five minutes each for a capsule presentation of their qualifications and views. Order of speaking will be determined by lot. These candidates are: county tax collector and treasurer, Russel Giles and James Birch; county assessor, Donald Stewart and Minnie Coyle; county superintendent of schools, Vernon Bagley, Dayton Benjamin, Ed Coffin, David Fernandez, H. G. Royal, Verna White; county sheriff, Burritt Cahoon Frank Cresswell Jr., William Jack Davenport, Johnnie Johansen, Clyde Klaumann, Harry Landis, James Matney, Darol Smith and Raymond Waters.

This opportunity for voters to meet, hear and question candidates for county offices is offered as a public service by the League of Women Voters of the Monterey Peninsula, a nonpartisan organization that does not endorse or oppose any candidate. The meeting will be conducted jointly by league president Mrs. John Brock and president-elect Mrs. A. S. Gaylord, assisted by a committee of league members.

The meeting will begin at 8:00 o'clock and everyone is welcome to attend.

Salvation Army To Conduct Local Drive Fire Chief Announces

For the first time in years, The Salvation Army will be conducting an independent operating fund drive on the Monterey Peninsula this spring.

According to Fire Chief Robert E. Smith, acting chairman of the Carmel Service unit, The Salvation Army, which serves Monterey, Carmel, Pacific Grove and Seaside, has been a participating member of the Monterey Peninsula Community Chest since 1958. However, this year the organization received a token allocation of $1,000 from the Community Chest, one-tenth of its allocation for last year.

"Unfortunately," explains Chief Smith, "we are unable to operate our local services with this amount. And, as we do not want to cut back on welfare services to the needy and troubled here, we are being forced to raise funds ourselves.

"It has long been Salvation Army policy throughout California that each community served by this humanitarian organization finance its own services, and so this year, The Salvation Army on the Monterey Peninsula has no alternative but to conduct its own operating fund drive."

Salvation Army officials have asked that their full needs be met by the Monterey Peninsula Community Chest next year.

Goal of the current campaign is $12,000, which will underwrite the activities of the four local service unit committees, which bring emergency welfare aid to several hundred local men, women and children in need each year.

Among other Salvation Army services rendered to Monterey Peninsula residents are aid to unmarried mothers, alcoholics, transient and out-of-work families, and to needy children, as well as giving optical and medical aid to the aged and others unable to afford it.

The drive will be conducted in two phases, a mail campaign this spring, and an early fall special gifts drive, according to Carmel's fire chief.

HUNTER TRIALS

Open World Affairs Council Talk On Russia Tomorrow

The Soviet View of Arms Control will be the subject of an address by Dr. Herbert S. Dinerstein of the Rand Corporation for the World Affairs Council of the Monterey Peninsula on Friday evening. The lecture, to be given at 8:00 o'clock in the Carmel High School Auditorium in co-sponsorship with the Carmel Adult School, will be open to the public without charge.

Dr. Dinerstein joined the Rand Corporation in 1950 and is currently head of the Soviet section of the social science department. Before this, he was assigned to the corporation's project, Studies In Soviet Culture, directed by Dr. Margaret Mead. Dr. Dinerstein has taught at New York University, the American University in Washington, D.C., and the University of Geneva, Switzerland. He also served as Soviet regional analyst, Office of War Information, Washington, D.C. He is the author of several publications, the most recent of which is War and the Soviet Union, published in New York and Britain in 1959 and in the German edition in 1960.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS DIVISION OF HIGHWAYS

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the State Highway Engineer, Room 510, Public Works Building, Sacramento, California, until 2:00 o'clock p.m. on June 13, 1962, at which time they will be publicly opened and read in the Assembly Room of said building, for construction on State highway in accordance with the specifications therefor, to which special reference is made, as follows:

Monterey County, at Carpenter Street near Carmel (V-Mon-56-I) channelization to be constructed, 3 tubular overhead structures to be furnished and installed and traffic signal, flashing beacon and highway lighting system to be furnished and installed.

Bids are required for the entire work described herein.

PLANS, SPECIFICATIONS AND PROPOSAL FORMS TO BE USED FOR BIDDING ON THIS PROJECT CAN ONLY BE OBTAINED AT THE OFFICE OF THE STATE HIGHWAY ENGINEER, PUBLIC WORKS BUILDING, SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA.

Plans and specifications may be seen at the office of the State Highway Engineer at Sacramento, at the offices of the District Engineers at Los Angeles and San Francisco, and at the office of the District Engineer of the district in which the work is situated.

No bid will be considered unless it is made on a blank form furnished by the State Highway Engineer and is made in accordance with the provisions of the Standard Specifications and special provisions. Each bidder must be licensed as required by law.

The Department of Public Works reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Tea For Presbyterian Women

Mrs. Joseph M. Ewing and new members of the Women's Association of the Carmel Presbyterian Church will be honored at a tea next Thursday afternoon from 3:00 o'clock until 5:00 at the home of Mrs. Frank L. Muncy on Monte Verde Street and Thirteenth Avenue.

Mrs. Morris S. Richardson, Pebble Beach violinist, will perform during the afternoon, and a duet on the organ and piano will be played by Mrs. Muncy and Miss Marsha Muncy.

General arrangements for the tea are under the direction of Mrs. Orval H. Polk, chairman, and members of the membership and hospitality committee. Mrs. Alton Walker and Mrs. Edgar C. B. Kirsopp are in charge of flower arrangements, and Mrs. Albert W. Swan is chairman of refreshments.

Guests are invited, and baby sitting service will be provided at the church.

Weekend Vacation For Bartons

Erica and Bob Barton, formerly of Carmel and now living in San Jose, were weekend guests of Bob's mother, Mrs. George Dunbaugh of Carmel.

The Bartons left their three small children, Jessica, Sabrina and Adam, under competent care at home. Free of parental cares, they swam, relaxed, visited the Big Sur, and saw old friends while they were here.

Bob teaches English at San Jose City College. Erica is the daughter of Mrs. B. B. Simpson of Carmel.

Bay Day Is On Saturday

Bay School, the "Little Red Schoolhouse" on Highway One, two miles south of Carmel, will be alive with bright balloons, music and gay decorations on Saturday during the Bay Day Carnival, staged annually by the Carmel Parent Nursery School.

From 11:00 o'clock in the morning until 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon, alumni, alumnae, "old parents" and friends of the school will find all sorts of activities going on, including games and rides for children, a bake sale, and a lunch of barbecued hot dogs, homemade baked beans and salad.

In the afternoon three winning ticket buyers in an art raffle will receive paintings by Richard Lofton, Ephraim Doner and Pat Carey.

Mrs. Peter Wangoe, assisted by Mrs. George Walker, is general chairman of Bay Day. Mrs. Richard Hill is in charge of food.

Mrs. Rosa Doner has been director of the Carmel Parent Nursery School since its start in 1949. The little 80-year-old Bay School has been its location for eight years.

Lee Stewart Is Nine

Seven friends, most of them River School third grade classmates, helped Lee Stewart, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Stewart of Carmel Highlands, to celebrate her ninth birthday on Saturday afternoon. (Her birthday was really May 9, but Saturday seemed to be a better day for celebrating.) After Lee opened her presents, refreshments were served in the patio—a pirate ship cake and soft drinks. Next, with Mary Pat Palmer in charge, everyone went to Monterey to see a Jerry Lewis movie.

Lee's guests were Nina Hahn, Charles Schetter, Robin Bell, Ann Whitman, Ann Abbott, Florence Hoffman and Janie Miller.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON

More meaningful goals are attained through spiritual enlightment. This is a theme of the Lesson-Sermon "Mortals and Immortals" which will be heard Sunday in Christian Science churches.

Paul's admonition to the Colossians (3) will be among the Scriptural passages: "Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth."

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include (p. 256): "Advancing to a higher plane of action, thought rises from the material sense to the spiritual, from the scholastic to the inspirational, and from the mortal to the immortal."

The Golden Text is from Romans (8): "If ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live."

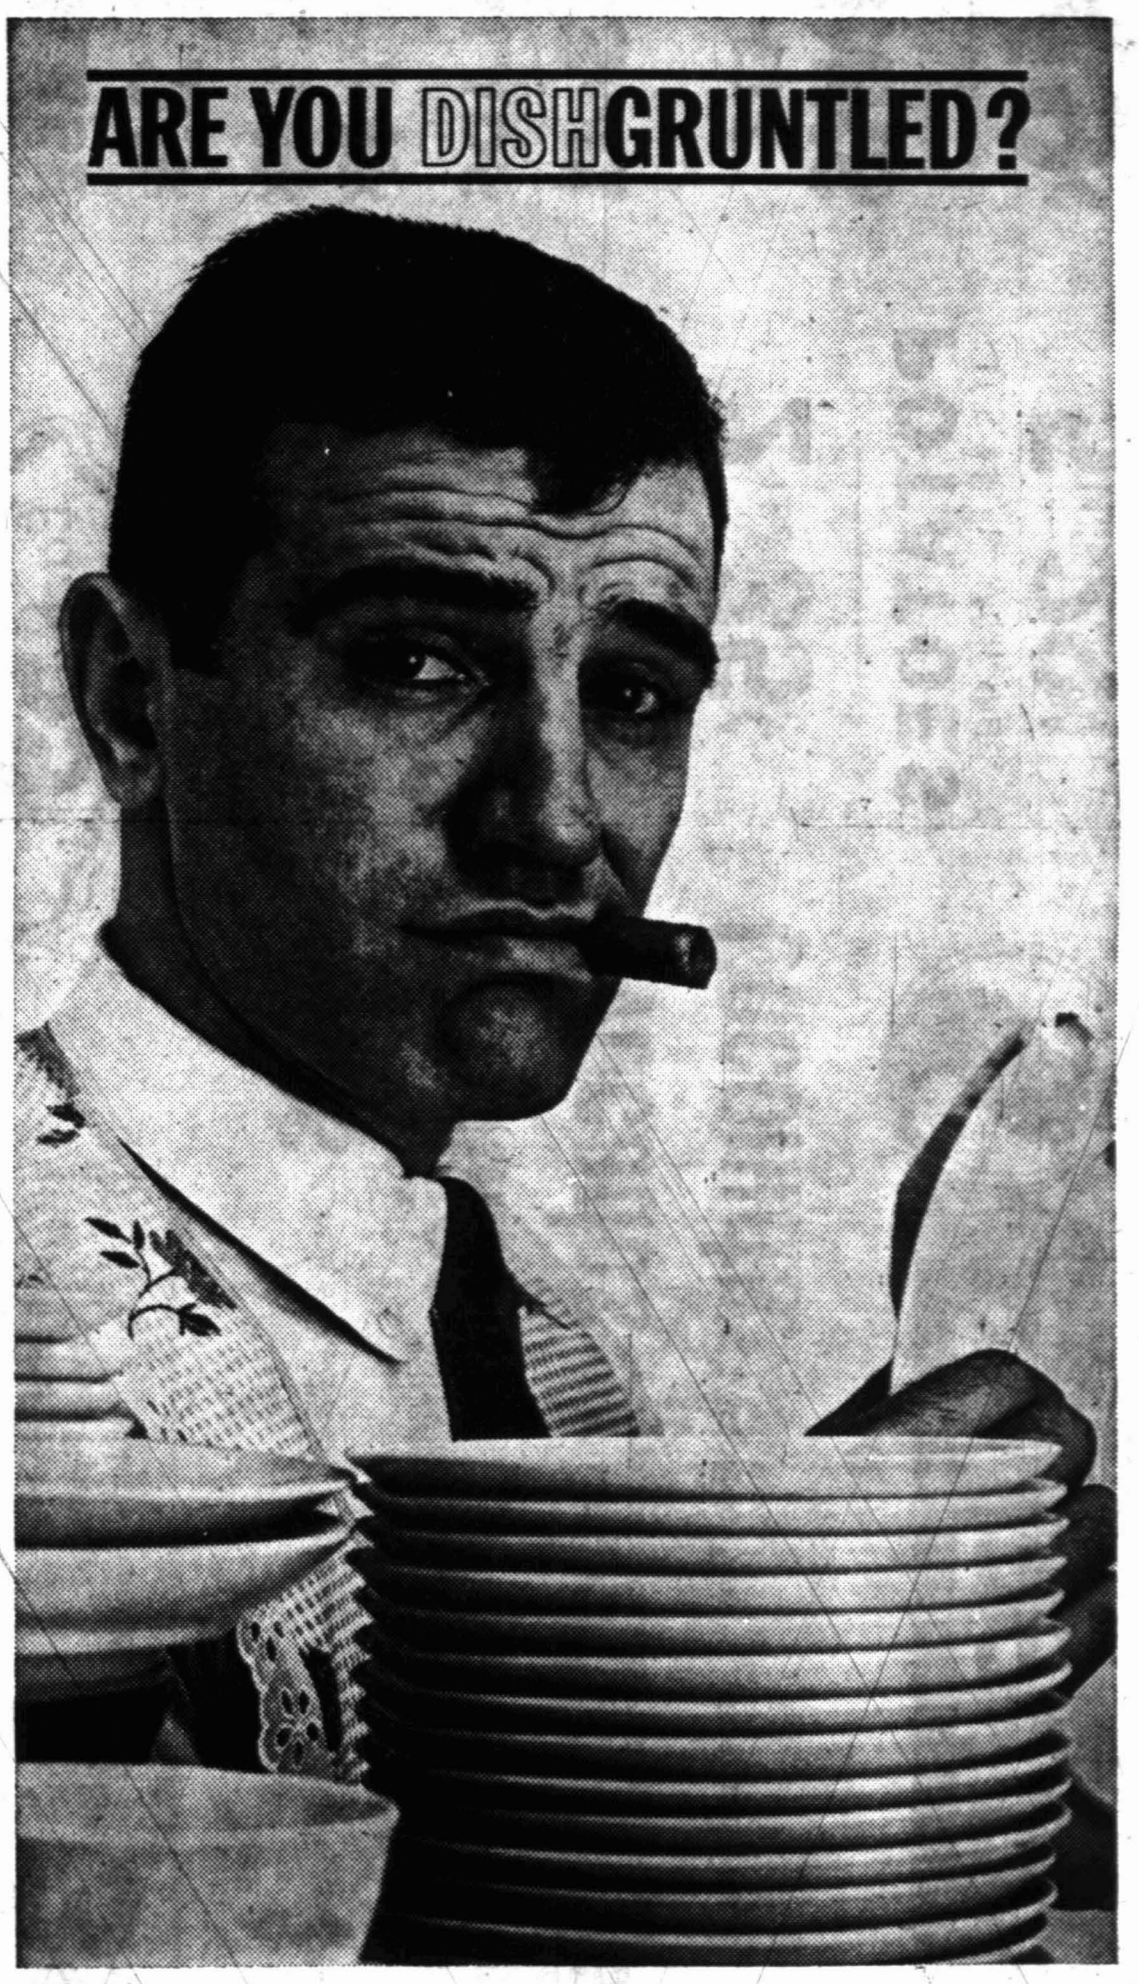
ARE YOU DISHGRUNTLED?



DON'T BE A DISHWASHER...BUY ONE

Here's the scoop: A modern automatic dishwasher not only washes dishes—it dries them, too. And they come out cleaner than hand-washing, because they're washed in water lots hotter than hands can stand! After-meal clean-up is quicker and easier, too. Gives you (and the little woman) extra hours of leisure time each week. So why not pick up the sports page after meals—instead of a dishtowel?

Get a work-saving, automatic dishwasher soon.

Honors For Valerie

Valerie Whitworth, the oldest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Rex Whitworth of Carmel, has received two major honors. First, she has been chosen "among 200 superior high school students" in Northern California to attend the Northern California Junior Science Symposium, which will meet May 24 to 26 on the Berkeley campus of the University of California. The symposium will be conducted in the manner of a professional scientific conference, with certain students presenting papers on the findings of their research projects.

Valerie's second honor is that she has received a scholarship for a six-weeks course in microbiology this summer at the College of the Holy Name in Oakland. Sponsored by the National Science Foundation, the scholarships have been offered to approximately 25 out of 160 applicants. Just to add to the excitement, news of both honors arrived in the same day's mail.

Valerie, a junior at Carmel High School, is at present considering a biochemistry major in college. She has two younger sisters, Pamela and Victoria, and two younger brothers, Ricky and Christopher, who all (except three-year-old Christopher) attend River School.

A Second Son For The Baxters

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baxter (Deirdre Carney) are the parents of a new son, David Lawrence, who was born May 7 at the Peninsula Community Hospital. He has one brother, Michael, who will be two years old on June 1.

David's grandparents, all living in Carmel, are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baxter and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carney. Both his parents are Carmel High School graduates and former students at Monterey Peninsula College.

Evelyn Barnes Weekends Here

Former Carmelite Mrs. Forrest (Evelyn) Barnes, with her sons, David and Timothy, were house-guests of Mrs. R. Ellis Roberts over the week end. The Barneses make their home in Palo Alto.

Democratic Club Mail-In Rally

An information day and mail-in rally on behalf of the King-Anderson Bill (providing legislation for medical care for the aged under social security) will be held on Monday by the Carmel Women's Democratic Club.

Information booths will be set up in Carmel between 10:00 o'clock and noon on Monday morning to answer questions about the bill. At 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, CWDC members will meet at the home of Mrs. Helen Arnold on Camino Real Street for a tea and conference, during which individual expressions of approval of the bill will be readied for mailing.

Dr. Robert Mishell of the Stanford Medical School, chairman of the executive committee of the Northern California Committee for Medical Aid to the Aged Under Social Security, will be the speaker. The club has invited local physicians who are in favor of enactment of the King-Anderson Bill to send in their views either by letter, postal card or telegram to CWDC president Mrs. T. E. Oberbeck, Box 331, Carmel.

Assisting in the arrangements, in addition to Mrs. Oberbeck, are Mrs. Jerome E. Carlson, program chairman; Mrs. Saul Weingarten, hospitality chairman; Mrs. Robert Strum, Mrs. Jack Wickham, Mrs. Henriette Millard, Mrs. Howard Benedict, Mrs. Donald P. Abbott, Mrs. Edgar Viall, Mrs. J. M. Rigdon, Mrs. E. A. H. Watson, Mrs. L. T. Alden, Mrs. R. V. Matteson and Miss Hattie Withey.

Brass Ensemble at Nepenthe

Tonight at 8:30 o'clock a baroque brass ensemble will give a concert at Nepenthe, an addition to the spring chamber music series at Big Sur. Charles Brady, the first trumpeter and founder of the group, is from Los Angeles, where he was personally selected by Stravinsky to make recordings of some of the composer's works.

Sunday's double concert, at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon, and at 8:30 in the evening, will consist of compositions by Lou Harrison for flute, violin, baritone, harpsichord and percussion.

A Party For Mrs. Lofton

Twenty friends who dropped in at the Richard Loftons' home Friday evening enjoyed the sight and taste of a handsome meringue wreath, filled with ice cream and strawberries, and made by Mrs. Russell Williams.

The occasion was a surprise party in honor of Mrs. Lofton's birthday. Assisting her father in welcoming the guests was the Loftons' younger daughter, Melissa.

The Loftons' older daughter, Nancy, was unable to come home from the University of California for her mother's birthday, but greeted her parents on Saturday when they drove up to Berkeley to attend Parents' Day.

New Arrivals

May 1 is the birthday of Sharon Lynn Roberts, the new daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Roberts of Lower Carmel Valley, who was born at the Peninsula Community Hospital.

Three babies in the upper Valley will share the same birth date, May 3:

Heather Anne, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lawrence Parsons, Jr., who was born at the Monterey Hospital;

Denise Kathleen, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Sherman, at the Peninsula Community Hospital;

Melio Bradley, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Favalora, at the Peninsula Community Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. James Phillips of the Big Sur Naval Facility, became the parents of a son, James Grant, on May 4 at the Peninsula Community H spital.

At the same hospital, Mr. and Mrs. John Klein of Carmel welcomed a son, John Michael, on May 6.

Craft Guild Meeting

At the meeting of Carmel Craft Guild last Friday in the Carmel Art Association building, Mrs. Clara Martini announced that next month in the Harrison Memorial Library there will be an exhibit of weaving from the Northern California Weavers Conference, held recently in Sacramento.

Carmel weavers Alma Anderson, Dora Crabtree, Mrs. Martini and Joe Weston were among the award winners at the conference, which was attended by 650 weavers from 25 Northern California weaving guilds.

Mrs. Crabtree showed pictures of the conference at last Friday's meeting. Afterwards the weavers described their work and showed examples.

All members of Carmel Craft Guild are invited to its next board meeting, to be held May 25 at 7:00 o'clock in the evening at the home of Mrs. Ernest Calley in Palo Colorado Canyon.

Atkinsons Back From Japan

Settled again in their Bixby Point home on the Big Sur route are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Atkinson, who returned last week after five weeks in Japan. "It was a wonderful trip," comments Mr. Atkinson, "and a stimulating experience to see the people and the country." A high point of their journey was a visit to Hong Kong.

Susie Had a Beach Party

Susie Draper, the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Draper, gave a beach party for nearly 30 friends and classmates from Sunset School (where Susie is an eighth grader) and Carmel High School on Friday. After supper and games on the beach in Cooke's Cove at the foot of Thirteenth Avenue, Susie and her guests moved up to the Drapers' home on Hatton Fields Mesa for an evening of dancing.

Art On The Peninsula

The Monterey Peninsula chapter of the American Federation of Arts will sponsor an exhibition of paintings by Peninsula children at the Monterey County Fairgrounds May 22 through May 28. A Pink Lemonade Preview will be held Monday from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock in the evening for AFA members, the children, their parents guests. The paintings, by boys and girls aged six to 12 years will be judged by members of the International Child Art Center in San Francisco who have sent several unusual shows of art by children of other lands to the Peninsula. Selected paintings from the local show will be sent on tour around the world.

Chairman for this event is Mrs. Donald Criley. Collecting the work from the participating schools are Mrs. Everett Banfield Jr., Carmel schools; Mrs. Richard Hill and Miss Jane Cook, Monterey schools; Mrs. Pat Carey, Pacific Grove schools; Mrs. Donald Smythe and Mrs. Richard Catlin, private schools. Mrs. Russell Emrich is hostess chairman and Richard Lofton is in charge of hanging the show.

The exhibition hours at the fairgrounds will be noon to 5:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

Judges for the exhibit will be Ruth Morgan of the International Child Art Center in San Francisco, and Mrs. Rhoda Kellogg, director of the Golden Gate Nursery Association in San Francisco.

Selected paintings by the Monterey Peninsula children will join those from the San Francisco Bay area to be sent on a European tour under the auspices of the United States Information Agency.

Patrons of the AFA show are John Boit Morse, Dr. William Fitzhugh, Mrs. Rama Stearns, Mrs. Greene Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Von Richter, Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Leach, Mr. and Mrs. James Tyson, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. van Loben Sels, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Criley and Mrs. Edward T. Brady.

So far 28 local artists have donated pictures for the third annual Tennis Court Art Auction sponsored by the Alcoholism Council of the Monterey Peninsula.

The event will take place on June 10 at the John Gardiner Tennis Ranch in Carmel Valley. The auction will begin promptly at 2:30 o'clock following a luncheon served from 12:30-2:00. Limited reserved seats will be sold for a bidders' circle.

All proceeds from the auction will go to Beacon House, a rehabilitation center for alcoholics, operated by the Alcoholism Council.

Each artist donating a picture to the auction will receive a quarter of its selling price. All purchases at the auction will be tax deductible.

The work of eight artists is on exhibit at Gamble's Galleries, 428 Cannery Row, until June 16. A champagne preview honoring the artists was given Saturday night. They are Joan Savo, Matabee Goto, Andrea Day, Stella Popowski, Richard Quittner, Jose Cross, Gino Bushini and Nick Guastella.

Joan Savo is a resident of Pacific Grove. Matabee Goto resides in Tokyo; Andrea Day in Los Angeles. Stella Popowski is a young Polish artist living in Mexico. Santa Barbara is the home of Richard Quittner, a metal sculptor, as is also Gino Bushini. Wood sculptures in the show are by Jose Cross and Nick Guastella.

It is well worth the drive up to the Carmel Valley Center to look at an exhibition of water colors and drawings by Winifred Carmer Marburg, in the upstairs studio of Marlinde von Ruhs.

Mrs. Marburg's primary concern is with the forms of the natural world: the shapes of cactus and windrows of desert sand; sea wrack and the fins of fishes; blowing leaves and unfolding buds. But upon these true and basic forms she has overlaid a rich imagination and a sense of drama. One charcoal drawing of a Spanish bayonet cactus seems to explode with energy and movement; although it is almost an abstract design, it is full of life.

There is great variety in the water colors, both in technique and in feeling. Some are bright and sharply defined, some are soft and dreamlike; but there is a sense of excitement and discovery in them all.

The studio is open daily from 2:00 until 5:00 o'clock in the afternoon, and the exhibit will be there through May 27.—V.M.

Community Hospital Public Dedication Ceremonies May 25

Mrs. Ralph Thompson, training captain.

The new hospital is situated between the Monterey and Pacific Grove roads at the top of Carmel Hill overlooking Monterey Bay.

Funds raised for the 100-room hospital total $2,100,000. A boost was given, this week, by the Carpenter's Union, Local 1323, when they presented a check for $500 to the hospital. Contributions to the current general gifts campaign conducted by ladies of the hospital auxiliary now is approaching the $7,000 point.

Patients will not be moved to the hospital until several weeks after its dedication.

Patricia Is Holyoke Graduate

The Thomas Elston family will have a reunion early next month at Mount Holyoke College, South Hadley, Massachusetts, when Mr. and Mrs. Elston fly east with their youngest daughter, Helen, meet daughter Jean in New York (where she has been living since March), and all go to Mount Holyoke for the graduation of Patricia Elston, the Elstons' oldest daughter, on June 3.

Patty, a 1958 graduate of Carmel High School, in her freshman year at college received the Merrill Prize for improvement in English. During her junior year she took the parties and politics course offered by the political science department, which gave her actual experience in practical politics.

Last summer Patty worked in the office of the United Nations High Commission for Refugees in Geneva, Switzerland, under the Mount Holyoke program of volunteer work in international organizations. She has been political science major.

Abraham A. Ribicoff, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, will deliver the commencement address, and the baccalaureate sermon will be given by The Right Reverend James A. Pike, Protestant Episcopal Bishop of California.

Patty is not yet sure just what her after-graduation plans will be, but the whole family plans to stay in the East until June 15 when Jean will sail from Montreal for a summer student tour of Europe.

Audubon Society Trips

The Monterey Peninsula Audubon Society has arranged a trip with the Santa Cruz Bird Club on Sunday. The meeting place is Waddell Beach, on Highway One north of Santa Cruz near the San Mateo County line. The time is 9:00 o'clock in the morning. The destination is Rancho del Oso (the Hoover ranch) near Davenport.

An expedition to the Uvas Dam area has been planned for Monday. Those planning to join are asked to meet at 9:30 o'clock at the service entrance, which is on the Hecker Pass road (Highway 152) out of Watsonville. Probable destination will be the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Irving L. Ryder near Morgan Hill.

Interested persons are invited to attend the programs of the society, and are reminded to bring lunch for all day field trips. Those wishing more information may call Mrs. G. P. Lamont, president, at MA 4-7812.

A NEW LISTING: Cozy contemporary cottage within walking distance to Ocean Avenue. Enclosed paved patio with miniature garden makes this partly-furnished home ideal for one or two adults. Single bedroom accommodates twin beds. Exclusive listing . . . $18,000.

ONLY $13,500! Carmel Valley stone and redwood cottage featuring pine-paneled livingroom, diningroom, country kitchen, and two bedrooms. Screened porch could be enclosed. New carport and complete fencing are additional items of value.

CARMEL POINT LOCATION: Maximum enjoyment with minimum responsibility awaits the purchaser of this ideal two-bedroom residence. Southeast exposure from sheltered patio-garden, livingroom, dining-area and master bedroom provides cheerful outlook. Other desirable features include 1½ baths, super-sized wardrobe closets, and compact kitchen (equipment included).

"VERY SPECIAL" CARMEL CHARM pervades this unique residential property that is typical of Hugh Comstock's story-book architecture. Authentic English atmosphere is achieved by hand-hewn beams, heavy oak plank and brick floors, carved stairway detail, wide sills, two fireplaces, and rustic setting. Four bedrooms, four baths, separate diningroom and peasant kitchen provide for family living within walking distance to the Village.

THE SOUND OF THE SEA IS SOOTHING to some. To others it is stimulating. For all there is romance in living where one can hear the surf break on the white sands of the beach at Carmel-by-the-Sea. We offer a spacious, sturdy older home two short blocks from the beach and within easy walking distance of the village. There is a big living room with cathedral ceiling and a fireplace for cheer on gloomy days, an open stairway to two bedrooms from which one can see the blue ocean. An attached garage, green lawn enclosed by a low stone wall and a secluded patio complete this picture of a choice home available only because the owners are leaving for Europe. Reduced to $35,000.

ALSO IN CARMEL and so characteristic of this uniquely charming village that it never could be found elsewhere is another "close-in" home. The larger than average lot has been landscaped to require minimum care. A broad deck on the South side of the house extends a sunny welcome to the big living room with bookshelves at one end and a fireplace at the other. Here are coziness and comfort. The kitchen is unusually bright and cheery, and there is a breakfast nook where flowers bloom the year round. A snug little den, three bedrooms, two baths and another private entrance so that part of the house may be used for guests or supplementary income make this a bargain at $28,000.

IF A NEW HOUSE is what you want, take off your shoes when you enter this spanking new home. Equipped with all the newest "gadgets" yet toned down to harmonize with Carmel's muted atmosphere. Spacious living room with open-beamed ceiling, separate dining room, two big bedrooms each with a colorful bath, a delightful cherry-paneled library and closets galore. The price? A surprise. ($33,500 including the blossoms by the door.)

OR, IF YOU MUST RENT and want a great big house with six fireplaces, we offer an old-world type mansion in the Carmel Highlands completely furnished for $360. Lease it for one year or for five!

Tom Brosnan, who for 21 years has been a beloved member of the Sunset School staff, was presented with a special service plaque from the Parent - Teachers Association Tuesday night.

Tom, gardener, maintenance director and confidant and friend of hundreds of students and teachers over the years, will retire at the end of this term.

Presenting the plaque, Sunset Principal Orville Rogers said, "We can't operate without him—that's why we have to close Sunset School."

No change appeared in sight today on construction at Carmel Junior High School which has been halted since May 1 along with construction projects in 45 other Northern California counties, because of the AFL-CIO Laborers Union strike against the Associated General Contractors and the subsequent lockout Tuesday by the contractors following failure of negotiation meetings in San Francisco.

Sign-bearing pickets assigned to the school construction site at the mouth of Carmel Valley have been absent since the Tuesday action.

A release prepared this week by the Northern California Home Builders Conference of San Mateo endorsed an action of the joint management group, the Northern California Construction Employers, asking for the halt to all construction projects.

Eleven Carmel students placed in competition at the Tri-county Science Fair Mathematics contest Saturday at Monterey Peninsula College.

Greg Branch was third place winner in elementary algebra among 168 participants, and Joella Leland was third in plane geometry among 52 participants.

Honorable mention spots went to Brian Cronwall and Ed Harrison in fifth and sixth grade competition; Jack Cunningham and Marian Reed, seventh and eighth grade; Jeff Hudelson, Bug Smith and Larry Thomson, elementary algebra; Andrei Pashin, plane geometry, and Jon Raggett, advanced math.

Students from parochial and public elementary, junior high and high schools in Monterey, San Benito and Santa Cruz counties participated.

Last Thursday, decision on an appeal of a denial of a liquor license for Cypress West Hotel was delayed for 15 days at the State Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control hearing in city hall, when City Attorney John Morse requested time to submit written arguments; another 15 days for William Bryan, attorney for the hotel, for reply and summation.

The license was originally denied because the Church of the Wayfarer is across the street from the hotel.

Class Of 1937 To Honor End Of Era At Sunset School

They will be specially honored in other ways, too, as representatives of all Sunset School graduates over the years.

All those who live in this area are asked to telephone Mr. Rogers as soon as possible so that he may make arrangements for their return as honored guests of the Class of 1962. Those who live elsewhere are asked to write to Mr. Rogers at Box 500, Carmel, and tell him whether they will be able to attend the last graduation exercises at Carmel's oldest school.
